

DANCE TAPESTRY

AUGUST 14-17, 2018

3 day workshop and performance Friday

GUEST FACULTY:

Michael Marlin, Artistic Director - "LUMA - Art in Darkness" - he has been a showman since he ran away with the circus at 19. Graduating from the Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Clown College, he has performed his juggling, dance, and music arts all over the world. He has worked with orchestras, dance companies, and on TV before founding the movement theatre / light project "LUMA". Michael will introduce the dancers to a new world with juggling and performance.

Taylorann Evans, Dancer / Teacher / Choreographer - from Boise, is living the dream of being a veritable dancer / choreographer. She has danced with various companies in the Boise area, including a part of Elevated Dance Project's ensemble "On the Verge", helping people through dance and love. She is working on a business administration degree with a dance minor at Boise State University and humbled to dance and teach with companies in Idaho. She will teach hip hop.

Sam Mughrabi, Dancer / Teacher / Choreographer - originated as a hip hop dancer in San Francisco with Funk Beyond Control. He spent a year training at the Alvin Ailey Theatre and placed in Capizio Ace Awards. Sam is a dancer and choreographer with Idaho Dance Theatre, among others.

Phyllis Affrunti, Dancer / Teacher / Choreographer - began training at Chapel Hill Ballet School, North Carolina and Maryland Youth Ballet. At 17 she was accepted on full scholarship to The Rock School of the Pennsylvania Ballet. She performed with Pennsylvania Ballet, Southern Ballet Theatre, Charleston Ballet Theatre, Eugene Ballet, and now Ballet Idaho. She has performed many principal roles. She is co-artistic director of the Boise Co-Op. This is her 15th season with Ballet Idaho
